

A few words from Luc Tanguay

April 1, 2020

As I conclude my last few days as President and CEO of Theratechnologies, I want to express all my gratitude to shareholders, board members, management committee members as well past and present employees for the 23 wonderful years. I feel privileged to have had such an interesting and stimulating career at Theratechnologies and for the pleasure of being surrounded by all of you.